Dear Donald:

Please Accept my apologies in delaying to send you the enclosed information which I had promised you in early August. The information was extracted from the parish records for the various parishes in Warwick County, England. These parish records are on microfilm and I could obtain copies of them, however, the extraction are easier to read.

There seem to be plenty of Griswolds in Warwick County and Solihull and Kenilworth parishes certainly have their fair share. As I look at the records, the George Griswold who was father to Michael Griswold is most likely the individual born in 1577 in Solihull and a brother to Thomas Griswold born 29 March 1575 in Solihull.

Also in England the practice was naming the first son after the paternal grandfather so George Griswolds father was probably Thomas Griswold who married Elizabeth Woodwarde on June 6, 1558. However, being a genealogist, yourself, you can work out the "mysteries".

Thanks so much for the material you have been willing to share with me.

Sincerely
Claude W. Marston
